Raintree Library Wins Recognition from the Amelia Bloomer Project

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chicago IL – The book, Feminism, by Kaye Stearman, published by Raintree Library, has been included on the 2005 List of Recommended Feminist Literature for Young Readers by the Amelia Bloomer Project, which is sponsored by the American Library Association's Feminist Task Force of the Social Responsibilities Round Table. The list will be published in Booklist's March Women's History Issue as well as on the group's website.

This book, part of the series Ideas of the Modern World, explores the history of feminism and its gradual impact on societies throughout the world. It also looks at the growth of the Women's Liberation Movement and at the focus of feminism today. The author, Kaye Stearman, has worked for international organizations in the fields of human rights, minorities, health, and development.

About the Amelia Bloomer Project

The Amelia Bloomer Project is an annual list sponsored by the Feminist Task Force of the Social Responsibilities Round Table of the American Library Association. The group selects new fiction and nonfiction, picture books through young adult titles, that are well-written and have feminist content. The list is published in Booklist's Women's History Issue, and on the group's website at www.libr.org/FTF/bloomer.html
